this historic book may have numerous typos and missing text purchasers can usually download a free scanned copy of the original book without typos from the publisher not indexed not illustrated 1886 edition excerpt absolute work of art which is the highest of all is that in which the individual mind although finite rising to the consciousness of the infinite within itself at once receives theoretically into itself the whole ideal content of the beautiful as presented in the objective work of art and at the same time again reproduces it out of itself the mind thus becomes one with the active living power and idea of the beautiful this is the highest stage and condition of mind attainable in art it is the absolute and perfect union of practical design and theoretical contemplation as realised in the spiritual creations of poetry the highest of the arts it thus combines in principle and essence the lower utilitarian and objective forms the work of art as such furnishes the highest and purest pleasure involving as it does a perfect activity realising its own end and bringing with it the repose of the spirit in theoretical contemplation 2 a further distinction in the beautiful rests upon the relation of the embodied ideal or spiritual idea to the material in which it is represented here the differences are determined by the predominance of the one or the other of the two sides or by their being in equal proportion so that there is a relation of equality and balance between them in connection with this second distinction of the beautiful we have the historical development of art and this unfolds the different forms of art first the work of art appears in a purely external and direct form the beautiful being exhibited mainly in material objects the thought or subjective ideal is indeed present but it is in a manner sunk in the material and is often exhibited only as an ornamentation on the form of the object this written to engage and inspire students with little or no previous experience in studio art or art history the third edition of approaches to art a new introduction to art history employs an accessible postmodern approach to a general education course introducing readers to seminal works of art throughout time this edition features increased coverage of art by people of color and women exposing students to diverse artists and restructuring the ways in which key figures and important artists are introduced to them the text features more than 100 new images and a timely focus on issues of agency identity and social equity the book includes the essential information presented in an introductory art history course visual elements principles of design style media and historical context in a compelling format that encourages critical thinking and multicultural visual literacy students learn not only the parts of art but also develop a deeper understanding of art s power to communicate on multiple levels universal cultural and personal for a balanced introduction to art a dual approach is really needed first a consideration of the elements of form design and technique and these elements are addressed in part one secondly a historical survey of art as it reflects the stylistic evolution and development of these elements in broad strokes with representative works of art and artists selected for aesthetic and historical importance this text presents concise interpretations of the most important cultural periods and major media that can serve as a structural basis for art courses of varying aims and orientations and be used in conjunction with other materials art history encompasses the study of the history and development of painting sculpture and the other visual arts in this very short introduction dana arnold presents an introduction to the issues debates and artefacts that make up art history beginning with a consideration of what art history is she explains what makes the subject distinctive from other fields of study and also explores the emergence of social histories of art such as feminist art history and queer art history using a wide range of images she goes on to explore key aspects of the discipline including how we write present read and look at art and the impact this has on our understanding of art history this second edition includes a new chapter on global art histories considering how the traditional emphasis on periods and styles in art originated in western art and can obscure other critical approaches and artwork from non western cultures arnold also discusses the relationship between art and history and the ways in which art can tell a different history from the one narrated by texts about the series the very short introductions series from oxford university press contains hundreds of titles in almost every subject area these pocket sized books are the perfect way to get ahead in a new subject quickly our expert authors combine facts analysis perspective new ideas and enthusiasm to make interesting and challenging topics highly readable
